

AUTUMN FAITH

“He who gives when he is asked has waited too long.”

HARVEST FESTIVAL & CHRISTMAS BAZAAR

There are two large events taking place at St. Dominic's Catholic Church this Autumn.

► First, they are planning their first Harvest Festival in September.

This is expected to be a fun time for the public to enjoy a well organized harvest.

► Second, in November, the church is inviting the public for their annual Christmas Bazaar.

This is a way for anybody with a heart for refugees to donate furniture or curtains or appliances and give funds so that a family from another country can be supported while they find work and become comfortable living in Canada.

If you had to flee your country to live in a foreign land, you'd be extremely grateful for any help that the local people might be prepared to offer.

St. Dominic's Catholic Church has a strong interest in caring for people. This interest, in caring, gives everyone the opportunity to make a difference in the life of someone else.

The world becomes a much better place tomorrow just because of the people who contribute and change the lives of people who need assistance.

St. Dominic's Catholic Church could not provide specific details by the publishing deadline for this edition of Local City Fun.

GIVING AWAY FREE CLOTHING AT SHERIDAN PARK ALLIANCE

On Thursday, October 18, 2012, Sheridan Park Alliance Church is holding a Clothing Giveaway.

They organize it every October, to give away winter clothing. Then, they organize another one in May, to provide summer wear.

The congregation felt a giveaway might be helpful since the church is located near high-rise apartments that house low-income residents.

For most families, it is a time of fun while bonding with the children and searching for a new wardrobe together.

Many parents said this helps to train the children to be generous to those who need it.

Three weeks before the giveaway date, the congregation also welcomes their neighbours in the community to donate their excess clothing.

Please call Heather Bendle at the church at (905) 823-6520 to make sure that they are open. Heather is the Clothing Giveaway Coordinator.

On the giveaway day, the church is open for two sessions, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 6 to 8 p.m.

The clothing area can take five families at any one time, but people can have a coffee and cookies while they wait their turn to visit the clothing racks.

Pastor Pye Chew feels this initiative is not only for the less fortunate but also a means for the more fortunate to donate their clothing. It brings the community together.

Sheridan Park Alliance Church is located at 2440 Fifth Line West in Mississauga, near Erin Mills and Dundas,
