

FREE WINTER MOVIES

"It's hard to make a cultural phenomenon every time." - John Travolta

GREAT FREE FEATURE FILMS AT CENTRAL LIBRARY

Brian Chiasson

Great Free Feature Films at Central Library
Did you know the Central Library in Mississauga is showing free movies - two times a week?
This is an opportunity to take the entire family out, and it won't cost a thing.
Each Thursday, at 6:30 p.m., you can watch a feature film for free at the Noel Ryan Auditorium.
They also offer films on Saturdays at 2 p.m.
The library, where the auditorium is located, is at 301 Burnhamthorpe Rd. W.

Titles & Dates

Here are the December movies and their dates:

- ▶ Home Alone
- Saturday, December 8, 2012
- ▶ Mirror, Mirror
- Thursday, December 13, 2012
- ▶ Home Alone II
- Saturday, December 15, 2012
- ▶ Nothing Like The Holidays
- Thursday, December 20, 2012
- ▶ Horton Hears A Who
- Thursday, December 27, 2012
- ▶ Mr. Popper's Penguins
- Friday, December 28, 2012

For information, call The Readers' Den Department at (905) 615-3200 - Ext: 3544.

Thai Food

If you live in North Mississauga, make reservations at Twin Fish Thai Restaurant, at 80 Courtneypark Dr. E. (at Hurontario - north of the 401). They are not a seafood restaurant. You can visit their website at twinfish.ca or call them at (905) 670-2395

Mediterranean Food

If you live in the South, visit Osmow's, at 600 Lakeshore E. (near Cawthra), for Mediterranean foods.
The falafels are amazing - I ate a dozen last summer.
Call (905) 990-1086. In Streetsville: (905) 826-6021.

Pastries

However, if you only want deserts, see Nova Pastry & Bakery, at 3635 Cawthra Road (the Plaza behind Shoppers Drug Mart at Burnhamthorpe).
Or call: (905) 279-3206.
Brian Chiasson has 25 years in newspapers and radio.

