Be careful who you trust. If someone will talk about others with you, they will certainly talk about you with others.

Incredible Art Centre Borders Mississauga

Brian Chiasson

If you drive along Burnhamthorpe and go to Oakville, you pass a golf course and, after several driveways, you come to a nice piece of farmland, hidden by trees.

This is the Joshua Creek Heritage Art Centre, at 1086 Burnhamthorpe Rd. E., 1 km East of Trafalgar Rd.

It is run by a few energetic elderly women, with the help of some men, who always have goodies available when I deliver this paper. This facility is becoming know to artists around the world, and helps anyone from school kids to senior's groups.

Local City Fun, this newspaper, will be doing a special feature on them in the Summer 2013 edition. There will be an exhibition of Calverley artworks from July 26 to August 25.

However, next month, you might want to know that they will hold the Mercedes Horne Exhibition from Jan. 11 to Feb. 3, 2013.

Also, consider the Art From The Heart exhibit from Feb. 8 to March 10, 2013.

Call them at (905) 257-4730.

LIMERICKS

Masthead

Local City Fun needs to fill the vacant positions below. These roles are voluntary only because Local City Fun does not have the budget to pay people. That might change if we gain enough advertisers or subscribers.

While education and experience are important, hard work and excellence are far more valuable. Your ability to work beyond the level of mediocrity will be far more persuasive than your education and experience.

Mind you, education and experience facilitate exceptional results, even if most people have wasted theirs. Here are the positions Local City Fun needs to fill.

ARE WE GOSSIPING ABOUT GOSSIPERS?

By Sylvia Lismore

A talkative lady named Fay.
 Was someone who gossiped all day.
 When hearing her lies, It was no surprise,
 No one listened to what she would say.
